Description

Long Term Investment While you may want a typical seven foot wide cargo trailer for obvious reasons - like hauling equipment, tools, and other assorted gear - there are lots of other great reasons to upgrade to a seven foot wide Road Force instead. Designed and built by Wells Cargo, a company that knows what it means to deliver rugged durability, long-lasting performance and carefree maintenance. Don't settle, buying a trailer should be a long-term investment, not a disposable expenditure.
